

BOOK CLUB QUESTIONS

1. Why does Carr agree to help Julie with the Governor's Point case? What is her motivation?
2. Barb describes Carr as "fearless," but is she actually fearless in reality?
3. The island community is strong and depends on each other. For this reason they are a tightly-knit community. Why do you think they accept Carr so quickly?
4. Do you believe Theresa shares the opinion that Mongin Island is a special place or do you think she sees it as a viable business market? Or perhaps, does she believe it to be both?
5. If you could visit Books & Brew, what would you look forward to most?
6. Tripp seems to have a change of heart near the end of the book. What do you think caused this?
7. Do you consider Mongin Island a character in the story in its own right? Why or why not?
8. If you moved to Mongin Island, which character would you most want to meet? Why did you select this person?
9. What would have been Paul's research plan if Books & Brew had not opened?
10. Why do you think Tripp, Carr, and Barb's friendships work so well? Do you have a relationship like this in your own life? If so, how do you nurture, maintain and grow this?
